

Dog First-Aid Checklist:

— Home Edition —

When at home, you can make your pet first-aid kit as robust as you please. Consider outfitting yours with the following basics and amenities.

Essentials

- Phone numbers (veterinarian, emergency clinics, animal poison control center)
- Paperwork (medical records and vaccines)
- Prescribed medications
- Guidebook to dog first aid

Supplies

- Gauze
- Adhesive tape
- Vet wrap
- Cotton balls or swabs
- Ice pack
- Disposable gloves
- Alcohol wipes
- Non-stick bandages
- Splints
- Emergency warming blanket
- Protective collar (inflatable or soft cone)

Tools

- Tweezers or pliers
- Blunt end scissors
- Oral syringe or turkey baster
- Eyedropper
- Magnifying glass
- Digital thermometer
- Tick remover tool
- Hair trimmer
- Flashlight
- Dog brush or comb

Medications + Remedies

- Hydrogen peroxide
- Antibiotic ointment
- Styptic powder
- Saline eye solution
- Artificial tear gel
- Milk of magnesia
- Activated charcoal
- Benadryl
- Lube
- Antiseptic spray or cream
- Antibacterial pain-relieving ointment

Dog First-Aid Checklist:

— Travel Edition —

When road-tripping or jet-setting with your pooch, you want a mobile-friendly pet first-aid kit. Consider the following essentials for your next trip.

Essentials

- Phone numbers (veterinarian, emergency clinics, animal poison control center)
- Paperwork (medical records and vaccines)
- Prescribed medications
- Guidebook to dog first aid

Supplies

- Gauze
- Adhesive tape
- Vet wrap
- Cotton balls or swabs
- Alcohol wipes
- Non-stick bandages

Tools

- Pee pads
- Tweezers
- Blunt end scissors
- Disposable syringe
- Eyedropper
- Digital thermometer
- Tick remover tool
- Flashlight
- Dog brush or comb

Medications + Remedies

- Hydrogen peroxide
- Antibiotic ointment
- Styptic powder
- Saline eye solution
- Artificial tear gel
- Milk of magnesia
- Activated charcoal
- Benadryl
- Antiseptic spray or cream
- Antibacterial pain-relieving ointment

Dog First-Aid Checklist:

— Outdoors Edition —

When hiking, backpacking, or camping with a dog, your pet first-aid kit should be lightweight but, foremost, efficient. Consider the following items for your next adventure.

Essentials

- Phone numbers (veterinarian, emergency clinics, animal poison control center)
- Prescribed medications
- Guidebook to dog first aid

Supplies

- Cotton balls or swabs
- Gauze
- Adhesive tape
- Vet wrap

Tip: Portion out medications into a pillbox!

Tools

- Styptic pencil and/or swab
- Multitool, with tweezers, pliers, and scissors
- Medical stapler
- Old credit card (to remove bee stingers)
- Dog brush or comb

Medications + Remedies

- Pain medicine/anti-inflammatory
- Hydrogen peroxide
- Diarrhea remedies
- Antihistamines
- Antibiotic ointment
- Saline eye solution
- Antiseptic spray or cream
- Paw salve
- Canine sunscreen
- Benadryl